

OneClickHR PLC announces 2008 pre-tax profit and higher 2009 revenue

Fri. March 27, 2009; Posted: 10:14 AM

OneClickHR PLC (LSE:OCR), a provider of human resources software solutions and training services, reported today (27 March) its full year pre-tax profit for 2008 and increase in 2009 revenue from the new products launched.

The company's pre-tax profit for the full year 2008 was GBP304,000, ahead of market expectations, compared to the pre-tax loss of GBP46,000 in the 2007 full year. The revenue was down to GBP5.8m, compared to the revenue of GBP6.3m the previous year, even though its HR software solution HR.net found 73 new clients. The sales fall was partly expected, as it included a licence sale to a large payroll provider in 2007. Revenue figures were not disclosed figures.

The company will re-branded the HR.net offering in 2009 and introduce new products for its established customer base, who have not yet migrated to HR.net. OneClickHR has no debt and its year-end cash balance is GBP861,000, double from the year end balance of GBP422,000 at the end of 2007.

<http://www.tradingmarkets.com/.site/news/Stock%20News/2244405/>

The screenshot shows the Trading Markets website interface. At the top, there are logos for Trading Markets and Thinkorswim. A search bar and navigation menu are visible. The main content area features a news article titled "OneClickHR PLC announces 2008 pre-tax profit and higher 2009 revenue". The article text is identical to the provided document. To the left of the article is a sidebar with "News" and "PowerRatings" sections. To the right is a "Related News" section. A promotional banner for "DTI Teaching the Art of Trading" is also present.